Dr. Len Broughton, of Atlanta, is calling Tom Dixon names. Queer those sensationalists won't let one work one side of the street and the other t'other.

Complaints come from the State and county fairs about fakirs. Well, who permits them to do business, or rather do the people, on the fair grounds?

The United States Court at Greensboro is trying to put 'Old Nick'' out of business. There is, however, another Old Nick that is putting people out of business every day, mostly at night.

Major J. C. Hemphill, the distinguished editor of the Charleston News and Courier has returned from a three months trip to Europe. He left a capital sub in charge of the paper, and no doubt, with his mind easy, he had him a time while abroad.

You live in Wilmington. Your interests and attachments are here. You want to see Wilmington grow. Then think for Wilmington; blow for Wilmington. Patronize home merchants, home industries and home institutions. Help to support your home paper.

Says the Raleigh Post: "Don't quit singing yourself because the mocking-birds have gone into winter quarters." We are a pretty gay lark but we aint much on singing. Our long suit is flying high, which interpreted means that we try to present a cheerful exterior.

"The Cossacks are Coming!" That cry will make the Russian populace scamper away to avoid the brutality of that branch of Russia's military. The excesses of these devils are monstrous, but they didn't handle the Japs like they do the unarmed people in the Russian cities.

Remarks the Washington Post: "All of the candidates in New York profess to believe in municipal ownership. The number that would favor it after election is decidedly limited." We have noticed heretofore that political platforms are made large enough to speak on but not big enough to work on.

—Owing to a misplaced correction line, one of the pranks likely to occur with the linotype, the name of Mr. D. E. Costin yesterday appeared in a magistrate court story, when it should have been as one of the officers elected by the Order of Druids. The context clearly indicated the error but in justice to Mr. Costin it is here stated that he did not appear and is not in the habit of figuring in the Magistrate courts, and we very much regret the misplacement.

THE MUTINY HORROR

Adams and Sawyer Placed on Trial for Their Lives in Federal Court

TRUE BILL AGAINST SCOTT

Arraigned and Trial Set For Tuesday—Wm. J. Bellamy Assigned as Counsel to Defend Him—Other Cases on Yesterday.

The trial of Arthur Adams and Robert Sawyer, two of the three negro seamen charged with the fearful mutiny and murder of Capt. E. R. Rumill and four members of the crew of the Philadelphia schooner Harry A. Berwind, off this coast early in October, was begun in the Federal Court yesterday morning. Four witnesses, including Capt. Isaac F. Hewett, of Vineland, N. J., managing owner of the Berwind; Capt. J. W. Taylor and Mate Simon, of the schooner Blanche H. King, which took the negroes from aboard the ill-fated ship, and Henry Scott, the third negro credited with being the arch conspirator among the mutinous crew and who is yet to go on trial for his own part in the affair, testified during the day and at a quarter to 5 o'clock a recess was taken until to-morrow morning at 9:30 o'clock when the trial will be resumed with testimony in behalf of the defendants, Col. Skinner, the District Attorney, having announced at the recess yesterday evening that the government would probably rest when court opened Monday morning.

The trial attracted an unusually large crowd all day and standing room in the court chamber, in theatrical parlance, was at a premium. Judge Purnell and Marshal Dockery seemed to recognize the great public interest being taken in the case and were very patient. Inside the bar railing was packed with attorneys, witnesses, jurors, court officers and newspaper representatives. Court convened at 10 o'clock and the prisoners were brought from the jail heavily ironed, the three being handcuffed together with Scott in the lead. They were unshackled in court and Adams and Sawyer were given seats with their counsel, George L. Peschau, Esq., while Scott remained in the prisoner's dock until called to the stand to testify. District Attorney Skinner and Assistant District Attorney J. A. Giles were at their desk, while behind them were Capt. Taylor, Capt. Hewett and Capt. David Stetson, the last named being owners' agent of the Berwind, in Philadelphia. Col. Skinner's unfamiliarity with nautical language was noticeable, but his prosecution of the case during the day was remarked upon as being thorough and vigorous. He frequently consulted those sitting with him as to this or that expression of the sea. Mr. G. C. Scherer, of the U. S. Engineers' office, sat at the clerk's desk and took the evidence in shorthand, having first been sworn as official court stenographer.

Contrary to expectation very little difficulty was experienced in selecting a jury, the panel having been completed a little after 12 o'clock. Nine of the number came from the regular jurors in attendance for the term and the three others were quickly taken from the 40-odd of the special venire of 50, returned by the Marshal. Of the 50 jurors called from all over the district, it was noticeable that only five said they had formed and expressed an opinion in the case. These were stood aside for the time being by Judge Purnell, who said he would rule later upon the eligibility of those if occasion required, but the panel was completed before the array was exhausted. Those who had formed and expressed an opinion were D. J. Rooks, of Pender; H. N. Wayne, of Columbus; John Leach, of Robeson; George Bonifore, of Robeson, and W. DeB. McEachin, of Scotland.

Before the selection of the jury was undertaken Judge Purnell laid down the method of proceedure the same as used in the State's Courts for the selection of a jury in a capital case. Monroe Hickman, the first juror called, was agreed upon. E. G. Parmele, David King and W. E. Barden were quickly stood aside by the defence, and F. M. Moore, of Brunswick, was taken. J. B. Bryant was peremptorily challenged by the defendant and Billy Watkins, of Robeson, was taken. J. W. Branch, A. M. Bowden and G. Herbert Johnson were objected to and G. F. Alen, of Bladen, was taken. Henry C. Wall and Robert James were peremptorily challenged by the defence and H. G. Hewett, of Brunswick, was taken. Jno. R. Baldwin and W. J. Pugh went aside and W. A. Wilkes, of Robeson, D. J. Burney, of Bladen, and J. D. McKeithan, of Brunswick, were taken in succession. Bascom Chappell, of Richmond, was peremptorily challenged by defence and W. W. Larkins, of Pender, was taken. The regular panel was exhausted with John Leach, who had formed and expressed an opinion. The veniremen were called and B. B. Humphrey, of New Hanover and John Riles, of Richmond, were peremptorily challenged by defence; Walter Murphy was not a freeholder. J. C. Cromartie was peremptorily challenged by the District Attorney. M. M. Caddell, of Robeson, was taken. J. J. Garason, A. G. Holmes, of Bladen, B. L. Sutton, L. S. Belden, G. S. McMillan, S. R. Shepard and Ike W. Solomon were rejected by the defence. R. I. Durham, of Pender, was taken. J. A. Hudson, Walker Willetts and A. R. Hilburn, were stood at the foot of the panel by the District Attorney. Cause of challenge was admitted by the District Attorney as to B. L. Blackmore. The defence admitted cause as to D. L. Gore. J. LeGrande Everett was not a free holder. Thos. Lossen, J. H. McLauchlin, S. B. King, Wesley Quick and J. C. Strauss were peremptorily challenged by the defence. H. W. Hood was taken and the jury finally empanelled as follows:

W. W. Larkins, of Pender; M. M. Caddell, of Robeson; Monroe Hickman, of Brunswick; F. M. Moore, of Brunswick; Billy Watkins, of Richmond; G. F. Allen, of Bladen; H. G. Hewett, of Brunswick; W. A. Wilkes, of Robeson; J. D. McKeithan, of Brunswick; R. I. Durham, of Pender; H. W. Hood, of Brunswick; D. J. Burney, of Bladen. Four of the jurors came from Brunswick, three from Bladen, two from Pender, two from Robeson, and one from Richmond. Mr. H. W. Hood, of Brunswick, was the last taken. He is from Southport where the tragedy was perhaps more widely discussed than elsewhere and was taken by the defence without any examination whatever.

The bill of indictment was then read by the District Attorney and the following witnesses for the government were sworn: D. S. Stetson, J. W. Taylor, I. F. Hewett, Theo. Simons, Henry Frazier, M. Arnetrecht, W. T. Pinner, S. P. Collier, Henry Weeks, R. W. Weeks, W. J. Mintz, Dr. J. A. Dosher, Dr. B. S. Warren, Henry Scott.

Capt. Hewet, managing owner of the Berwind, testified that the vessel was an American craft and gave the official list of officers and route of her last charter. He knew nothing of his own knowledge about the mutiny and was stood aside by Mr. Peschau on cross examination.

Capt. Taylor, of the schooner Blanche H. King, told of sighting the vessel ahead off the Cape Fear coast about 9 o'clock on the night of Oct. 19th, his attention having been attracted by the manner in which the vessel was being steered and a red light on the quarter, contrary to law. He steered his vessel nearer and hailed the Berwind, asking what was the trouble. A reply came back that one man aboard had killed the captain and four men aboard and they wanted to be taken off. Capt. Taylor sent his mate and four seamen in a yawl to the King and between 11 and 12 o'clock brought the three negroes from the Berwind on the King, placing a crew aboard the abandoned craft and instructing the mate to steer the Berwind straight behind the King to Southport, where he subsequently delivered the prisoners to the authorities. Capt. Taylor described conditions aboard the ill-fated ship and identified the log book and other records found in the cabin after the mutiny. John Hall, mate of the Berwind, was formerly Capt. Taylor's mate and he identified the dead man's signature among the records, which will be later introduced in the testimony. Capt. Taylor's cross-examination by Mr. Peschau was very short.

The Story of Scott.

Henry Scott was placed on the stand and advised fully by the District Attorney that he need make no statement that would incriminate himself. With perfect self-possession and with the utmost sang froid, Scott then unfolded a tale of the medieval ages. He told a straight enough story but his attention to minute details and assignment of reasons for this or that statement did not create as favorable an impression as it otherwise would have. He was entirely calm and impressed his hearers as of intelligence and keen insight into affairs generally. He talked rather fast and would frequently turn to Mr. Scherer and ask impulsively "Did you get that?" "Did you get that?" and "Am I too fast?" Once when he was asked about the size and ability and weight of the murdered men, he wheeled around in the revolving chair on the witness stand and asked one of the jurors to stand up. The juror stood up and Scott made a very intelligent comparison of the relative sizes of the juror and seaman. Again when asked about the size of another member of the crew, he ran his eyes over the bar and asked William J. Bellamy, of the local bar to stand up; made his remarks as to the relative size and bade Mr. Bellamy to resume his seat.

Scott began his story from July 6th when the ill-fated schooner sailed from Philadelphia to Cardenas, Cuba, with coal. Soon after they left the crew began to complain about the food served them and Coakley, the dead negro seaman, went to see the captain about it. On Sunday following Adams had trouble with the stewart or cook about the same thing and about the amount of water furnished, the stewart charging the crew with using the fresh water to wash in when the supply was limited. Adams called the stewart a liar and a white———. Capt. Rumill had to stop the trouble. Sawyer also had the same trouble and told the captain if he couldn't get the water, he would take his allowance and quit the ship. Arriving at Cardenas there was further muttering and grumbling among the crew. The ship remained 10 days and sailed for Mobile. On the voyage the conditions were worse. Arriving at Mobile he went ashore one Saturday night to spend Sunday with an uncle there and was later joined by Sawyer, Adams and Coakley, who had drawn some of their wages and got shore leave. They had a drink and the three, without the witness, went off to a pawn shop and bought pistols. They displayed them to him on the ship next day. Sawyer complained that they all had been treated very brutally and said that if it kept up before they got back home in Philadelphia they would shoot, if necessary. When they left Mobile the weather was rough and the fare bad. The rudder head sprung off and the men had to handle it with a make-shift arrangement. Sunday they had nothing to eat. Monday night about 8 o'clock he said he saw Capt. Rumill for the last time. Sawyer and Adams were on the watch on the vessel and he and John Coakley were asleep below until 4 o'clock, time for them to come up and relieve the other watch. They came up, had weak coffee and he went to relieve Sawyer on deck and Coakley to the wheel to relieve Adams. The engineer came up in the engine room to fix his smokestack and went below. Mr. Hall, the mate, was sitting on the deck load and the cook was in the galley. When he took the wheel, Coakley asked about the coffee

BAZAAR THIS WEEK

Big Affair Under Auspices of Masonic Fraternity With Assistance of Ladies

IN THE TEMPLE BUILDING

Flower Fair, Baby Show, Dancing Each Night and Many Other Features on Tapis—Committees Meet To-morrow.

The event extraordinary for a great number of Wilmington people this week will be the elaborate bazaar to be given Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons and evenings in the spacious Masonic Temple for the benefit of a fund to place an elevator in the building. The support and co-operation of a large number of ladies have been enlisted in the work and they are working industriously and enthusiastically to round out a magnificent success of the affair. Every department of the work has been assigned to a committee and these committees are meeting almost daily to the end that nothing shall be neglected.

The bazaar, it is heralded, will afford "amusement for the very small, restful to the very old and useful to all." There will be quite a number of booths and a display of fancy work. Then there will be lemonade, candy and refreshment booths, an old-fashioned country store and other attractions too numerous to mention. A number of handsome prizes will be offered each night to keep up the interest and several of the contests are expected to be exciting.

The flower show will be a special feature and the public is assured of one of the finest exhibitions ever witnessed in North Carolina.

Most of the merchants have donated liberally to the success of the event but the ladies hope to interest still others in their undertaking and to that end ask all who desire to contribute to send their contributions Monday.

The baby show Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock will be a most interesting feature as all such exhibitions always are. There will be prizes and for the other little folks who will attend Miss Mamie Alderman has a treat in store in the way of a Donkey Party with numerous games and refreshments.

There will be dancing every night and music by a good orchestra. The dances will be informal in their nature and the young people generally will take part.

All the ladies will meet Monday morning at 11 o'clock for a general discussion. Members of all committees are expected to be present. The Masons will meet Monday night to assist in the movement and a full attendance is expected.

MARITIME MISCELLANY.

Schooner Berwind Proceeds—Another in for Harbor—Tank Steamer.

The schooner Harry A. Berwind, aboard which the fearful mutiny and murder by negro seamen occurred off this coast early in October, cleared yesterday for Philadelphia in command of Capt. Tom Barrett, who brought his officers with him. The crew was signed here. The schooner passed down the river yesterday afternoon and will probably set sail for Philadelphia to-day.

The tank steamer Maverick, with Standard Oil Barge, No. 91 in tow, passed out at Southport at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning for Port Arthur, in the Texas oil fields. The barge discharged a supply of oils here for the district branch of the company in this city. The voyage before her is a long one. She will bring crude oil from Texas to New York.

The schooner Chauncey E. Burk, 758 tons, Capt. Fisher, from Pascagoula, Miss., to Newport News, arrived at Southport yesterday for supplies having been out 35 days from the Gulf port. The Burk had previously reported at Key West, Oct. 18th, where she put in with her steering gear out of order and pumps choked. She reported all well at Southport yesterday and will proceed in a day or two. It is a queer coincidence that for two years Capt. Fisher was master of the schooner Berwind, aboard which the mutiny occurred, and that the two vessels met each other at Southport yesterday. Aboard the Burk upon which Capt. Fisher now sails, the captain was also murdered in his cabin in New York harbor some eight or ten years ago.

Advice to Merchants and Farmers
Do you know when you buy any grade of Guano? It's simply an adulteration, a small per cent of which is blood and bone, which is the superior ingredient, but when you purchase FISH SCRAP, you get nothing but pure FLESH, BLOOD & BONE. The above assertion we guarantee and can prove. Therefore FISH SCRAP has no equal as a Fertilizer. We are Sole Agents for the Ocean Fisheries Co., who manufacture the finest article of FISH SCRAP known. Prices cheerfully given on application.

The Morning Star.

WILLIAM H. BERNARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Sunday Morning, Nov. 5.

THE ROYAL ARCANUM'S TROUBLES.

The Star is in full sympathy with Cornelius Harnett Council, Royal Arcanum, of Wilmington, in its controversy with the Supreme Council. Laying aside the real cause of the dissatisfaction in the subordinate councils about the action of the Supreme Council in practically freezing out the old and faithful members who have stood by the order and kept it alive, we do not hesitate to say that the action of the Supreme Council in suspending the Wilmington council is extremely arbitrary. It will present more than one pretty point of law if the matter goes into the courts. The Supreme Council may have the right under its charter to do certain things but the charter itself in a good many respects may be contrary to the law and in that respect would be of no effect. Some of the courts have decided that under the charter, the Supreme Council has a right to suspend a subordinate Council, but when it comes to a matter of insurance or benefit obligations to members of the lodge, that is in the nature of a contract with such individuals and we do not believe there is a court in the land that will recognize any action of the Supreme Council in abrogating such contracts.

The Raleigh Times speaking of the Arcanum troubles says this, and it will be appreciated by the members of the Wilmington Council:

"Undoubtedly the courts should interfere and prevent the effort of the supreme regent of the Royal Arcanum to increase the assessments of older members and to protect the local councils of North Carolina which have been suspended for a righteous protest against a most grievous wrong. The proceeding is worse than outrageous. There is no justice in it, and those members of the order who have paid their dues, who have been paying them for years, and who are growing old are entitled to some consideration. It is not right to increase the dues of those who have kept the faith and paid their hard-earned money into the treasury. They have reached that age when they can secure no more insurance. They are nearing the end of their existence, and few will endorse the action, whether members or not, which is intended to work greater hardships on the men who have made the association prosperous through all these years. The increase of itself was bad enough, but the suspension of the Wilmington and Salisbury councils was a damnable outrage that calls for prompt and vigorous handling. It is no less than a high crime to say that the moneys paid by the subscribers shall be swept away because they had the manhood and the daring to protest when a protest was justified by the facts and the conditions. Are the premiums running over a period of twenty-five years to be lost simply because the Wilmington Council would not submit when submission would have been an evidence of cowardice?

"The courts must use their good offices to save these members from distress and financial ruin. The younger members are oposed to the new rules, and they are opposed to it for the reason that they will become old in time and for the further reason that they do not, and cannot, believe in a system which is cruel and outrageous. There is a remedy at law and the Supreme Council and its supreme regent are not above it."

THE SITUATION IN RUSSIA.

The Associated Press dispatches from Russia indicate that the Czar's empire is a veritable hell on earth. It is no doubt the result of absolutism in government and certainly it is an unhappy contemplation in the light of the twentieth century. In the midst of one of the oldest civilizations of the world it appears incredible that there should exist in Europe such a condition of anarchy and shocking barbarity. It clearly shows that the work of civilization is by no means yet complete among a large portion of the white race in this world.

One of the interesting situations in the midst of the bloodshed and turmoil in Russia is the statement of the Associated Press cables on Friday that Finland is in revolt and that the Finnish militia had defeated Russian troops sent against them. Just what the rebellion of Finland amounts to, and what ability the maddened people have to maintain armed revolution is not stated, but the action of the Finnish people is a virtual declaration of independence from Russia. We would not be at all surprised to see Poland join the revolution also, for they are two peoples who have always chafed under the despotic yoke of the Czar's autocratic empire.

The New York Times speaking of the Finnish revolt says:

"The Grand Duchy of Finland is inhabited by an excellent, industrious, and peaceable people, of the same kind, ethnically, as their Scandinavian neighbors whom we have found such highly eligible marterial for our own citizenship. The Finns look down upon their neighbors the Russians, as a less civilized people than themselves, and, by any generally accepted standard of civilization, they are entitled to do so. But, nevertheless, so impressive and formidable has been the brute mass of the Russian empire that, for nearly a century Finland has been content to accept the position of an appanage of that empire, provided only its own domestic institutions were preserved and respected. The covenant of Alexander I. that this should be done, made in 1809, has been maintained until it was broken by or under Nicholas II. The fanatical crusade for a Procrustean "Russification' of all the outlying provinces of Russia, to which the late Plehve and the surviving Pobiedonostseff have declared themselves, has had the effect of alienating this most kindly and most valuable people from friendship to the Russian 'institution' into bitter enmity against it."

CURRENT COMMENT.

—In nine months the American Tobacco Company has paid twenty per cent. dividend on the common stock. The New York Commercial says the earnings for some time past have been at the rate of forty per cent. And yet it keeps down the price of tobacco at a price that will not permit the farmers to earn four per cent.—Raleigh News and Observer.

—The Industrial News approaches the subject cautiously but finally lands flat-footed with the President on his railway rate programme. An editorial in yesterday's News closed with the "sincere hope" that southern representatives in congress will "be big enough to put aside any question of party and give to the President their loyal support." It is a safe guess that had the President held to an opposite view the News would have said "me too" with more alacrity than it now says it.—Raleigh Post.

—What the people of Raleigh want is for the Supreme Court to construe that doubtful section of the Watts law providing the method of calling an election. There are three views. When Mr. Battle and Mr. Jones yesterday before the Supreme Court cut away from the technical contention and ask the Supreme Court to consider the whole record and interpret the section, not in any interest or from any agreement, but for the guidance of all towns that may need to have the law made plain.—Raleigh News and Observer.

TWINKLINGS.

—A rantakerous husband in Norfolk, Va., has been sentenced by a judge to kiss his wife twice a day. Look out for a biting story later on.—Mexican Herald.

—Lillian Russel looks so well in vaudeville incased in Queen Wilhelmina's $2,000 gown that Peter Dunne would never think of again asking pensively: "Why do people marry Lillian Russell?"—Chicago Post.

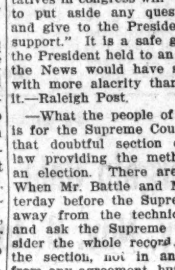
—Those of the officials: "Think of leaving something behind," urged the Insuranee agent, "to provide comforts and even luxuries for the little ones." "Yes," responded the sarcastic citizen, "Whose little ones?"—Chicago Sun.

—Fun in Hades—First Fiend—Hi, Sulfurino, come over here. Lots of fun. We're torturing a coal baron. Second Fiend—Aw, go on. We've got the real thing. We're torturing a life insurance grafter.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

—"And so they were married?" The day after the parson had collected his fee the newly elected freight payer said: "Darling, you certainly have lovely teeth." "I'm so glad you like them, dear." rejoined her bridelets. "They were a Christmas present from grandma three years ago."—Chicago News.

—Col. John H. George, of Concord, N. H., was an aggressive Democrat and a popular speaker. Once while waiting at a railroad station he met a farmer who was an old acquaintance. The farmer said "How is it that you retain your youthful appearance?" to which Colonel George replied, facetiously, "I drink New England rum and vote the Democratic ticket." "Yes, I see; one dizen neutralizes the other," said the farmer."—Christian Register.

The Indian never liked work but he wanted his squaw to get well as soon as possible so that she could do the work and let him hunt, therefore he dug papoose root for her, for that was their great remedy for female weaknesses.



Dr. Pierce uses the same root—called Blue Cohosh—in his "Favorite Prescription" skillfully combined with other agents that make it more effective and protect the stomach from functional disturbance.

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION is not nor ever was a "patent medicine," but it is the carefully wrought out and thoroughly tested real prescription of a real physician in a real practice.

Dr. Pierce's unparalleled success with this remedy was such that more wanted to use it than any one doctor could attend to in a private practice. This induced him to manufacture it on a sufficiently liberal scale to meet the demand.

By his own special processes, he extracts, combines and preserves the medicinal qualities of the several ingredients without the use of alcohol (using chemically pure glycerine instead), thus rendering it absolutely safe for any woman of any age and in any condition to use freely. The names of the ingredients are: Lady's Slipper root, Black Cohosh root, Unicorn root, Blue Cohosh root and Golden Seal root.

Miss May Rohrback, No. 73 Amsterdam Avenue, New York City, Treasurer of the Woman's Progressive Union, writes:

"I had headache, backache, and was very nervous; scarcely able to sleep more than two hours at a time. I was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and was delighted with the result. Within a week I was sleeping splendidly. Continued using the 'Favorite Prescription' for eight weeks, and then stopped, for I was perfectly well. Ever since then your medicine has been my 'Favorite Prescription,' too. I recommend it to every one."

Constipation although a little ill, begets big ones if neglected. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation.

MONTHLY PAINS?

Read This "Death is no worse than the pains I suffered at my monthly periods," writes Mrs. Sarah G. Butts, of White Plains, Va. "I tried many medicines without relief, but Cardui cured me, and I am now better than for 15 years."

Periodical pains will certainly make you lose all your good looks, and quickly make you old, before your time. Do not suffer. Refuse to be a victim. You can be cured and your functions made as regular, easy and painless, as nature meant them to be—as nature planned all our functions, like digestion, breathing, etc., to be.

When you suffer periodical pains, like headache, backache, dragging-down sensations, pain in legs, arms, side, etc., it is because your weak female parts are in need of a tonic, that will give them the natural strength which they lack. This you will find in Wine of Cardui, that will give them the natural strength which they lack. This you will find in Wine of Cardui, the genuine, old, remedy and specific, for female diseases, which, for over 70 years, has been in constant use, in thousands of families throughout the country, during which time it has been of wonderful benefit to over a million women. MR. ROBT. R. BELLAMY

Tells Why He Endorses Vinol So Highly.

First: Vinol contains in a concentrated form all of the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but without a drop of oil to nauseate and upset the stomach, and retard its work, therefore where old fashioned cod liver oil or emulsions will do good Vinol will do far more good.

Second: Because Vinol is not a patent or secret medicine; it contains no injurious drugs to react upon the system, and you know just what you are taking, as everything it contains is printed on the back label of every bottle.

Third: Because Vinol acts first upon the stomach, creates a healthy appetite, tones up the digestive organs, purifies and enriches the blood, and in a natural manner health is restored, and strength is created.

Fourth: Since we first put Vinol on the market our admiration for it has steadily increased, because it rarely disappoints a customer; in fact, we can truthfully say we never sold a medicine more satisfactory to create strength for old people, weak, sickly women and children, nursing mothers and to build up strength after a severe sickness.

Again Vinol is endorsed by eminent physicians and guaranteed by over two thousand of the leading druggists of this country. These are some of the reasons why we believe in Vinol. Robert R. Bellamy, druggist.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit Mich.

* * * * *

The announcement of the approaching marriage of Mr. J. Dawson Latham to Miss Grace Nessmith, in Florence, S. C., the latter part of this month, is of interest to relatives and friends in this city.

* * * * *

The handsome Vollers' home on Eighth and Market streets, has a rival in the Rehder residence on the opposite corner. These two comfortable homes add much to the attractiveness of the neighborhood.

* * * * *

Capt. Albert W. Anderson and daughter, Miss Anderson, are at the Colonial Inn for the present. Capt. Anderson expects to move his family to Wilmington in the near future, and they will be pleasantly received by a circle of friends made by him since his residence here as General Superintendent of the Atlantic Coast Line.

* * * * *

The society editor does not and will not write a line about any entertainments, he attends as an invited guests, for reasons which are perfectly obvious to persons with sufficient delicacy of feeling to appreciate the duty of a guest to his host or hostess. If requested, of course, he will cheerfully "write up" the event for the society column.

Mrs. Lizzie Sands, of New York, who spent last Winter in this city, was so favorably impressed with the climate, and circle of friends made, has decided to spend the present Winter here. Mrs. Sands has had ample opportunities of judging of the climate of various localities, and her decision is quite a compliment to Wilmington as well as a pleasure to her friends.

* * * * *

"Town Topics" of this week, says "The beautiful contest, at the Virginia Hot Springs, was interesting and close until the Cottons of Wilmington, N. C., arrived upon the scene, when it became absolutely one-sided. The second step-daughter of Colonel Cotton, Miss Elizabeth Latimer is a picture of typical Southern loveliness. Mrs. Cotton's striking appearance explains the beauty of her daughters."

* * * * *

Invitations have been received by friends as follows:

Mrs. George Anthony Peck.
invites you to be present at the marirage of her daughter.
Anna McKay
to
Mr. Thomas Walker Davis
Tuesday evening, November the fourteenth, nineteen hundred and five at six o'clock
First Presbyterian Church
Wilmington, North Carolina.

* * * * *

The marriages to be solemnized this month, so far as is now known, are those of Miss Janie Williams to Mr. Henry J. McMillan at the brides' home, November 9th. Miss Anna Peck to Mr. Thos. W. Davis, in the First Presbyterian church, November 14th; Mrs. Neesfield G. Wootten to Lieut. Geo. B. Rodney, U. S. Cavalry, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Geo. P. Cotchett, November 15th; and Miss Emma West to Dr. Thos. M. Green in St. James' church, November 16th.

* * * * *

It is a delightful trip Mr. Henry J. McMillan has mapped out for his bride. From Wilmington, via. the West India Limited, a luxurious vestibule train, to St. Augustine, Fla., that queer, interesting old Spanish town, with its historic old fort, sea wall, narrow streets, queerly constructed houses and the old slave market; then in sharp contrast, the Flagler domains with board asphalt streets, modern buildings, elegant hotels and landscape gardens. From Jacksonville, they will sail down the St. John's next Saturday on one of the elegant ocean liners for New York.

* * * * *

The Misses Elizabeth and Elovine Burruss of this city, who are the guests of Miss Creveling in Auburn, N. Y., are receiving marked attentions, and are very popular with the Auburnites. From the papers we glean, that in addition to a luncheon by their hostess, they have been entertained at a dinner, of ten covers at the City Club, by Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Sleicher. At the Country Club a dinner of twenty covers was given complimentary to them by Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Latimer, Jr., and on last Saturday they, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sleicher, made a visit to Ithaca to witness a football game, and were also Mr. and Mrs. Sleicher's guests at the Cornell Chapter House of the Chi Psi Fraternity, which is said to be the handsomest in the country. Here they were joined by Messrs. Ray Powers and Walter Storm who are Cornell students. On their return from Ithaca they were guests of the Auburn Country Club, at its Hallowe'en celebration, and have been the recipients of other attentions which tend to make the pleasure of their visit complete.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—At Raleigh on Friday the State chartered the Beaufort Land and Improvement Company, with $125,000 authorized and $6.000 paid in. The incorporators are W. H. Mace, C. W. Jones, Chas. L. Abernethy and F. L. Merritt.

—Clarkton Express: Good news come from Councils. An election was held there last week and a special tax voted for school purposes, not a vote being cast against it. That is the kind of news we like to hear, and we hope to hear the same from other sections of the country at no distant day.

—The N. C. Baptist says: "There is talk of organizing the Cumberland Fair into a Cape Fear Agricultural Fair covering the counties of Cumberland, Sampson, Bladen, Robeson Scotland and Harnett, and make it a great exhibition of the products of these counties without the addition of fakirs and gamblers and other things of a demoralizing nature."

—A dispatch from Rutherfordton on Friday says: Two months ago Oliver Webb, an overseer in the Florence Mills, six miles from here, struck Sam Lewis, one of his employes, over the head with a large piece of iron, claiming that Lewis had started for him with an open knife. Both were tried before a magistrate and bound over to court. The humiliation was too great, and immediately after the trial Webb went to a drug store, bought two bottles of laudanum, drank one, and was drinking the other when friends interfered. Three physicians worked with him until the following morning when he was revived. In the criminal court here yesterday Judge Council fined Webb $25 and Lewis $5. Webb, again feeling that he was forever disgraced, paid the fine, left the court room and went directly to a drug store where he secured more laudanum and drank it, dying this morning.

A DANGEROUS MISTAKE.

Wilmington Mothers Should Not Neglect Kidney Weakness in Children.

Most children have weak kndneys.

The earliest warning is bed-wetting.

Later comes backache, headache, languor.

'Tis a mistake to neglect these troubles,

To blame the child for its own distress.

Seek to cure the kidneys—

Save the child from deadly kidney ills.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys.

Wilmington parents recommend them.

J. T. Ebert, formerly of 515 South Sixth stret, mattress maker, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills in my family. My little girl complained of severe pains in the small of her back, and the kidney secretions were dark and full of brickdust sediment. We were very much worried about her and when I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills I went up to R. R. Bellamy's drug store and got a box and gave them to her. Since using them she has improved wonderfully and is a different child. Her Kidney secretions cleared up, she does not complain of her back, and in fact, Doan's Kidney Pills gave her new life. We are very much pleased with them and you can use my name and welcome."

PRINCE LOUIS HONORED AT NATIONAL CAPITAL

General Chaffee Tendered Him Luncheon, and President Roosevelt Gave State Dinner Last Night.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Rear-Admiral Prince Louis was the guest of the American army to-day. To-night he was the guest at a State dinner at the White House, where the President had a distinguished company to meet Britain's admiral-prince. The health of the sovereign relative of the Prince, King Edward, was proposed by the President.

The guests at the luncheon given by General Chaffee numbered sixty, including members of the President's cabinet, Assistant Secretary Bacon, the Acting Secretary of War, and ranking officers of the general staff. The Prince sat at Gen. Chaffee's right, and was most congratulatory in his reference to the commanding general's war services and to the American army.

When cigars had been lighted, Lieutenant-General Chaffee introduced Secretary of State Root, who in a few graceful words proposed the healths of the President and the King. As the first health was drunk the band played "Star Spangled Banner." The American National anthem was merged into "God Save the King," as the health of King Edward was drunk. Admiral Prince Louis then asked permission to say a word.

"Next to their loyalty to their king," the Prince said, "every British officer cherishes the President of the United States. The King first, but the President next."

They had, he said, a peculiar affection and esteem for Theodore Roosevelt—not the President alone but particularly for Theodore Roosevelt—the man. Wherever the English language was spoken that sentiment prevailed. The Prince then thanked the American officers, army and navy, for the hospitality and courtesy which he and his officers were receiving.

From the luncheon, accompanied by Lieutenant-General Craffee and a number of guests, the Prince, his personal staff and his commanding officers drove to Fort Myer, where the Prince witnessed one of the famous American cavalry drills, executed by troop F., Captain Preston, of the Thirteenth Cavalry.

SCHOOL OF TROPICAL MEDICINE.

New Orleans Has Stamped Out Fever —Pensacola's Fight.

By Wire to The Morning Star

New Orleans, Nov. 4.—The following is the official summary of the yellow fever record at New Orleans up to 6 P. M. to-day:

New cases today, none; total cases to date, 3,398.

Deaths today, one; total deaths to date, 450.

Cases under treatment, 8.

Discharged, 2,940.

With only eight cases under treatment and only one of these still in the first four days of illness, the fever is to all intents and purposes, stamped out. One or two sporadic cases are looked for and there may be one or two deaths but that will be all.

Professor Ruppert Boyce, dean of the Liverpool school of tropical medicine, left for Greensboro, N. C., tonight where he will be the guest of President Spencer of the Southern Railway and will then go to New York and sail for Liverpool. His advice and suggestions have been sought on the question of establishing a school of tropical medicine in conection with Tulane University and before leaving he expressed himself in the highest terms of the project and said that from what he had heard the fund for its establishment would be secured without difficulty.

Pensacola, Fla., Nov. 4.—The fever situation tonight presents the brightest aspect at any time during the past two months. Summary: New cases today, one; total cases to date, 556.

Deaths today, one; total deaths to date, 79.

Under treatment, 35; discharged, 442.

THE CHORUS GIRL TRAGEDY.

Dr. McLeod Furnishes $20,000 Bail—Dragging for Girl's Head.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Boston, Mass., Nov. 4.—Except for the arraignment of Dr. Percy D. McLeod, his release later on very heavy bail, and the granting of a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Mary S. Dean, the missing nurse of the Roxbury house, comparatively few additional facts developed to-day regarding the death of Miss Susanna A. Geary as the result of an illegal operation at a private hospital, and the finding of portions of her dismembered body in two dress suit cases in the harbor. The police made a fruitless search for Mrs. Dean. Three business men furnished $20,000 bail for Dr. McLeod, and the harbor police dragged all day in vain for the satchel which, it is said, contains the head of the unfortunate girl, the only portion of her body that has not been recovered.

NEGRO PARTY ORGANIZED.

Virginia Colored Voters Resent Treatment by Lilly Whites.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 4.—Developments today have confirmed the report of an organization among the negroes, the immediate result of which will be the practical elimination of the Republican negro vote from the State election next Tuesday. The organization is that of an independent negro party, the idea being for the members to absent themselves from the polls for the present as a rebuks to the white leaders of the Republican party in the State for ignoring the "Brother in black." The white leaders say they are glad to get rid of the element represented in the new party, this element having always been an incubus on the party as a whole. The present effort of the white leaders is to build up a white Republican party in the State.

TOO REVOLTING FOR DESCRIPTION

Butchery of Jews at Odessa Only Ceased for Lack of Victims

MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN

There Are 5,657 Wounded In the Hospitals—Killed Among the Mob Attacking Was 120—Situation in Russia.

According to the latest dispatches that have come out of Russia, Count Witte is making his force felt. His hand is on the helm and disorders are beginning to cease. Emperor Nicholas has signed the manifesto granting political autonomy to the Finns and it has been dispatched to Helsingfors where a grave revolution was threatened and battleships had already reached that port with 10,000 troops to quell the insurrection.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 4.—Count Witte is getting his hands on the helm and the Russian ship of State is beginning to right itself. Gradually the disorder that followed the promulgation of the constitution giving the people liberty is being put down. The premier has met the immense difficulties confronting him, and the pressure of the demands of the different classes of society with the energy and sincerity that are more and more giving him the support of the moderate liberals, who have been frightened by the carnival of disorder into which the country has been plunged and the inordinate demands of the proletariat under the leadership of "reds" and Social-Democrats.

Count Witte yesterday solved the railroad strike at a conference with the strike leaders, at which, he did not hesitate to make a practical surrender of the government's demands. The basis of settlement includes increases in wages, right to organize, freedom of meeting and re-employment of strikers.

One of the newspapers, after a careful investigation gives the number of victims in St. Petersbrug during the disorderes as six killed and thirty-two wounded.

Amnesty Manifesto.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 4.—The text of the imperial manifesto granting amnesty to political prisoners signed by Emperor Nicholas yesterday, declares that by virtue of the intention expressed in the manifesto of October 30 to accord the population inviolable principles of civil liberty free pardon is granted to political criminals of various categories, which are enumerated, and also to participators in strikes and those responsible for breaking contracts. Persons convicted of crimes committed over ten years ago are to be released and will be sent to the Siberian colonies. Those who are now colonists there will be allowed after four years to chooose their place of residence but are prohibited from living in the capitals, St. Petersburg and Moscow, for three years. Convicts not coming under these categories have their sentences reduced by one half and persons condemned to imprisonment for life have their sentences reduced to 15 years imprisonment. Persons arrested by imperial or administrative order are released. Those condemned to death or liable thereto have the penalty commuted to 15 years imprisonment at hard labor. The amnesty decree includes political offences committed up to October 30.

Finnish Revolution.

Helingfors, Finland, Nov. 4.—Three Russian battleships, a cruiser and ten thousand troops have arrived here from Reval. The warships are anchored in the harbor.

Batterties have been placed on two commanding hills outside the town and the cannon in the Sveaborg fortress have been turned against the city which also lies under the guns of the warships in the harbor. The authorities with the assistance of the 10,000 reinforcements which have arrived here, hope to be able to control the situation though the insistance of the socialists in their impossible demands makes the position critical. Russian families are seeking shelter in the Nylands barracks.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 4.—The manifesto of Emperor Nicholas granting demands of the Fins has been signed and dispatched to Henlinfors. It convokes the diet December 20, abolished the dictatorship, rescinds Governor General Bobrikoff's illegal enactments, annuls the manifesto of February 15, 1899, which provided for common legislation in the Empire and all the laws since enacted. It announces that the extraordinary diet now convoked is for the revision of the diets electoral basis.

Odessa, November 4.—It is believed that the worst is over. Owing to the mobs' being satiated with two days' carnival of murder and destruction by flames, the revolt against law and order is dying down, partially perhaps because of lack of material upon which to prey. Almost the entire Jewish quarters of Moldavanha, Slobodka and Bugaiovka are devastated and their inhabitants have either been killed or wounded or have sought refuge in other sections of the town. The whole fury of the mobs was directed unchecked against the Jews. During the first remonstration over the Emperor's manifesto and the sudden acquisition of "freedom," tens of thousands of men who had hated the Jews through generations became drunk with the desire for Jewish blood, swarmed into the Jewish sections of the town and killed for the very joy of killing.

In some instances the military aided instead of preventing the work of vengeance and fury which culminated yesterday in the quarters mentioned. Every Jew, man, woman or child who was caught was slaughtered. The methods employed in the work of butchery were too revolting for description.

Before this morning's dawn the material had become exhausted, and the men who had for the moment became beasts, left the wrecked sections of the city, and though sullen were easily driven back before the rifles of the infantry.

A trip of investigation this evening over the Jewish quarters confirmed the stories or horrors and devastation. Some bodies, mutilated among them women and children, were still unremoved from the deserted streets. The shops were closed and in the wrecked houses the broken furniture was lying everywhere in heaps.

While it is probable that the total number of persons killed will never be known, the number of wounded persons in the hospitals and ambulance houses affords some guide. The 5,657 wounded reported up to this morning were distributed as follows:

In the Jewish hospitals, 3,715. In the Municipal hospital, 1, 260. In the different ambulance houses, 682. It has been definitely ascertained that only 120 of the anti-Jewish mob were killed.

At the beginning of the massacres, the students militia rendered some assistance and saved many lives, but the police, it is said, disarmed the students and even in some cases shot them with their own revolvers.

THE MARYLAND CAMPAIGN

Forecast Says Suffrage Amendment Will Be Defeated—Many Democrats Against It.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Baltimore, Nov. 4.—The main issue of the Maryland campaign, which practically closed to-night, is the proposed constitutional amendment, the avowed purpose of which is to disfranchise the illiterate negro voters. One of the clauses of this amendment provides that to be qualified to vote a person must be "able to read any section of the constitution of this State submitted by the officers of registration, and to give a reasonable explanation of the same as the registration officer."

This provision has been vigorously opposed by a large number of Democrats, including Governor Warfield, Attorney General Bryan and United States Senator Rayner as opening the way to flagrant abuses, with the result that many Democrats, including Independents and Regulars, have openly joined the Republicans in opposing the amendment. Apparently the foreign vote in Baltimore, which has heretofore been divided between the two parties will be cast almost solidly with the Republican.

To-night both the Republicans and Democratic State chairmen express confidence. The Republican chairman claims that the State will give a majority of 25,000 against the amendment and that the Republican candidate for State comptroller will be elected. The Democratic chairman does not make any specific claim, but said:

"The amendment will surely win and we will elect the State comptroller and a majority of the Legislature."

The conservative view at the end of the campaign is that Baltimore will give a large majority, probably 10,000 against amendment and this majority is not likely to be over come in the counties.

MURDER OF YOUNG GIRL.

Believed to Have Been Killed by Her Lover.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 4.—The dead body of Winona Charlotte Newton, aged 15 years, daughter of Thomas Newton, a painter, was found to-day beside a bridge over a small stream near Fifty-fifth street and College avenue, on the outskirts of the city. The girl evidently had been murdered. The girl's face had been disfigured by many cuts, there were finger marks on her throat, and a stone weighing 150 pounds weighted down the body. The theory of the police is that the girl went to the bridge last night to meet her sweetheart, that they quarreled and that he murdered her. The police to-night arrested Austin Francis, the girl's reputed sweetheart. He denied having been with the girl last night.

A hasty examination by Deputy Coroner Parker at the undertaking rooms, to which the body was taken, disclosed that the stomach contained a large quantity of acid, but the officers assert that death resulted from violence before the acid had had time to act. Above the right eye was a cut made by a blow delivered with such force that the skull had been fractured. The police believed that after the supposed quarrel, the girl swallowed the carbolic acid in an attempt to commit suicide, but she was murdered before the drug took effect.

PERSECUTED BY WHISKEY TRUST

Sensational Feature in Old Nick Williams Company's Case.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 4.—What promises to develop into a sensational feature of the case of the Government against the Old Nick Williams Distilling Company, of North Carolina, for alleged cheating the government out of revenue in the operation of their plant, was developed to-day when the character of the defense was made known. The attorneys claim that the Kentucky Whiskey Trust are the moving spirit in the prosecution with the intention of driving out of business the Old Nick Williams Company, which is an independent concern. Lee Redman, the general manager for three of the largest distilleries in Louisville, was on the stand to-day for the government as a distillery expert. Under cross examination Mr. Redman testified that the distilleries he represented ship whiskey to every State except North Carolina. The Old Nick Williams Company are large shippers in the State.

TORNADO IN OKLAHOMA.

Seven People Killed, Many Injured, and Property Destroyed.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Mountain View, O. T., Nov. 4.—A tornado struck Mountain View this evening killing seven persons, injuring many others and damaging much property.

The school house, two churches, two livery barns, one hotel, a cotton gin and about twelve dwellings were blown away and many more houses were wrecked. The business part of the town was untouched except a few windows blown in.

Mountain View is a small town a few miles from Snyder which was wrecked by a tornado last Spring, with the loss of 120 lives.

M'CLELLAN BETS THREE TO ONE

Close of Whirlwind Campaign in In Greater New York Last Night

ALL CANDIDATES CONFIDENT

Thousands of Money Wagered on Contest—Tammany Leader Mum—Postal Authorities Seize Postal Cards Carricaturing Hearst.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, November 4.—No municipal campaign in recent years has aroused greater interest throughout the country than that which will be concluded in Greater New York on Tuesday of next week. The fact that party lines evidently nave been broken down and that each of the candidates will draw more or less largely upon the strength which logically belongs to his opponents makes the canvass which is now drawing to a close at once unique and exciting. The country-wide possibilities involved in the issues have added an element of national interest such as has not marked any preceeding local elections.

One feature of the campaign is the interest Wall street brokers have manifested in the betting, which to-day favored McClellan for Mayor and Jerome fo district attorney. The odds on McClellan varied from 2 to 1 to 2 to 1. On Jerome 10 to 7 to 10 to 8 was offered. One firm of brokers, it is said placed $150,000 against McClellan since the opening of the campaign and stands to win $500,000. It was estimated that all of $50,000 was wagered in Wall street today. One bet was made by T. B. Buchanan today of $1,000 even with J. J. Judge that Hearst would not get 172,000 votes. Among the largest was one of $6,000 to $2,000 that McClellan would win, and $15,000 was wagered by one firm on McClellan at 2 and 2 1-2 to 1 in small amounts.

In the Jerome betting one broker placed $6,000 to $4,800 that Jerome would win. On the Ivins side $500 was placed against $100 that Ivins would lose. Two to five was offered on Hearst against the field.

The party candidates issued statements today. William M. Ivins declared he was gaining votes by thousands each day. Mayor McClellan said he was never so confident as now, and Mr. Hearst's managers said he would be elected. Tammany Hall's executive committee met this afternoon, but Mr. Murphy declined to give out figures on the election tonight.

The estimates are at wide variance and the whole Greater New York situation tonight, winding up as it does, in one great whirlwind of politcal meetings in every section of the city makes the prediction fair that the result will be close. The speech making end of the campaign closed for the candidates tonight, all addressing big meetings.

The distinctive features of the campaign have been the independent canvass for re-election to the office of district attorney conducted by William Travers Jerome and the entrance into the arena of local politics as a separate organization, supporting practically a full ticket, of the Municipal Ownership League. Both of these events stand forth according to observers of things political, epoch-making incidents, in that they are accepted as marking independence of action even to the disregard of party limitations, which heretofore have bound men who figure prominently in politics.

Thousands of Tammany campaign postal cards issued in opposition to William Randolph Hearst, candidate for Mayor, were confiscated today by order of Postmaster William R. Wilcox, of this city. The cards were a miniature of a campaign poster and banner which has been widely distributed by Tammany. It bore a transparent likeness of President McKinley above a red bomb, the fuse of which was burning while in the back ground was the fleeing figure of a man labeled "Hearst." It bore the inscription "Lest we forget," and contained alleged extracts from one of Mr. Hearsts's newspapers. It was said at the general postoffice today that 361,000 of the aleged scurrilous cards had been held up. Postmaster Wilcox's action in excluding the cards from the mails, was based upon that section of the postal laws which provides that no scurrilous matter shall be sent through the mails on postal cards. When Postmaster Willcox was asked if there would be criminal prosecution in connection with the alleged violation of the postal laws, he replied that any further action in the case would have to be taken by the Washington authorities, to whom he had officially reported the mater.

CAROLINA DOWNS GEORGETOWN

Tar Heels Won Foot Ball Game by Score of 36 to 0.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Richmond, Nov. 4.—The North Carolina team far outclassed the Georgetown eleven in the matter of weight at least in the football game here this afternoon, and so went through the Georgetown line almost at will. The Georgetown boys fought pluckily but could not hold the superior weight against them. Abernethy played brilliantly for the Tar Heels tearing great holes in the Georgetown lines. He got into a small sized crap with Dutcher of the Georgetownians, at one point in the game, but the two men soon shook hands and made up the difficulty generously. There was a fairly good crowd in attendance at the game. The score was 36 to 0 in favor of the North Carolinians. Referee, Dr. Whitehurst, M. A. C. Umpire Suter. Linesman Russell. Time of halves 25 minutes each.

and said he was going forward to give the cook h—l Very soon he saw Coakley take hold of the cook, a small man, and the mate went to the cook's rescue. Sawyer and Adams came running up and Coakley let go the cook, grabbed the mate, shot him three times and threw him overboard. Sawyer fired two bullets in the cook and then they threw him overboard. Next Scott said he saw Adams and the engineer, a large man, tusseling and Sawyer and Coakley ran up to take the part of Adams. Each of the colored men fired into the engineer one time and threw him overboard. Scott described the location of each killing on the ship and told of subsequent events. He found a pistol on the starboard side of the vessel and put it in his pocket. Sawyer and Adams came to him and asked about the directions and said that if the ship were put to the westward they could reach land by morning. At 8 o'clock Sawyer relieved witness at the wheel and he went down to put the lights out. He looked for the captain but could find him nowhere. He then went down and got breakfast for the crew; also prepared dinner which was eaten at 12 o'clock. Sawyer went down and got supper. Sawyer and Coakley had charge of the ship.

At this juncture a recess was taken until 3:15 P. M. At the latter hour court convened, but Mr. Peschau counsel for defence, did not put in an appearance. Bailiffs were sent out to look for the missing attorney, the Judge announcing that he would wait for the absent counsel until 4 o'clock. Shortly before that hour, Mr. Peschau came in quite demurely when his absence was inquired of by some one in the court room. Mr. Peschau glanced at his watch, then at the clock on the wall and was surprised to find that the time-piece was running an hour late. He promptly apologized to the court and the trial was resumed.

Scott said after supper Coakley went to the wheel and he and the two other members of the crew sat down on the cabin and Sawyer proposed the idea of letting one of the yawl boats go adrift, pretending that the captain and officers had gone aboard it and been drowned while they would get in the smaller boat and pretend that they had abandoned the vessel and come back to it. In this way they could steer the vessel in, fill her with water and claim prize money. Scott said he would not hear to the story and Sawyer knocked him down with a club while the others bound him hand and foot and put him on the cabin. Adams and Sawyer went forward and Coakley was at the wheel. Witness pretended he wanted water and asked Coakley to go forward and get some. When Coakley was out of sight Scott said he was about to get loose when Coakley came back unexpectedly and caught him trying to unfetter himself. Coakley struck him on the neck with a club and was about to shoot him when he pulled his own gun and shot Coakley first, the dead body falling over on him where he was tied. Sawyer and Adams later came back and beat him severely. He identified two pistols and a black jack found on the vessel and said other pistols had been thrown away.

The cross-examination of Scott by Mr. Peschau was designed to show that he made conflicting statements on his direct examination with those at the preliminary at Southport. Scott said that was only a short statement at Southport; this was one to the whole world. He denied having told Capt. Stetson that he didn't believe in God and in a hereafter. Scott left the stand at 4:30 P. M.

Mate Theodore Simon who headed the crew which went from the King to the Berwind, explained the dangerous undertaking of taking the men off in a yawl while a high sea was running and said he found Scott tied. Sawyer and Adams demurred to taking Scott off, but Scott pleaded and finally all three were taken. He identified the log book and other records from the schooner and the pistols displayed in court, one of which was handed to him in the yawl boat by Adams, who told him where the others would be found. He also identified the rope they had Scott tied with. He corroborated Scott in that he said the blood stains were found on the vessel where Scott said the killings took place. The blood looked as if an effort had been made to scour it up.

Upon the conclusion of the mate's testimony, the trial suspended until Monday and Scott was formally arraigned the grand jury having returned a true bill against him in the same manner as against Adams and Sawyer. The court appointed Wm. J. Bellamy, Esq., to defend the prisoner and the trial was set for Tuesday morning. Mr. Bellamy said he would not ask for a special venire, depending upon the regular panel and those who may be summoned from among the bystanders.

The only other matters in the Federal Court yesterday was the return of not a true bill against Mrs. Florence M. Hall, postmaster at Hallsboro, N. C., for abstracting letters from the mail, and the return of a true bill against Thos. Franklin of Richmond county, removing and concealing spirits.

There are not more than a half dozen criminal cases now on the docket for trial in the court.

After permitting the predominance of athletics under sufferance during recent years, the faculty of Randolph-Macon college has determined that football at the expense of study must be checked, and several crack players, who failed in class standing recently, have been prohibited from training for the game. Something of a rebellon has broken out among the students in consequence, but the college authorities are standing firm.

Man's Unreasonableness

is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Republican," of Leavenwort, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife, for female troubles, "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick, she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters, she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her houshold duties." Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy druggist, price 50c. **

MORE THAN PROUD

How a Man Who Had Wasted His Life With Alcohol Was Made a New Man

COULD NOT CONQUER DRINK

As Last Resort He Took Keeley Treatment and Rejoices in Redemption from Degradation and Ruin—Hope Renewed.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

About fourteen months ago I left your Institute a "New Man," and am proud of the treatment because I had striven for years to conquer, by my own exertions, that ever growing thirst for Whiskey, that was consuming body, mind, and soul, and with each fall went further down the dark abyss; no place to hold and begin where I left off, but on, and on, further and further, faster and faster, the accursed hell-broth dragged me, until I could almost hear the lost souls of the damned on the verge of Satan's Kingdom beckoning me on; but, as it happened, I fell into Keeley instead of damnation's darkest chasm, and now the past is looked upon with regret. Without the treatment there is no doubt but long before this time I'd have been sailing along the river Styx, or stranded on its far away shore, remembering the past in the sickly fires of the sulphur fumes of Hell.

More than proud of the treatment because it has brought glow to the cheek, a sparkle to the eye, and hope to the heart of her whose happiness is more precious to men than gold of Ophir or the diamonds of Galconda.

The treatment has enabled me to cut loose from every associate whose influence or habits would in the least persuade, or offer the shadow of a temptation, and I now feel in myself the confidence of a Gibraltar to resist every wave temptation that comes against me. During the month I was with you every officer connected with the Institution did everything to make it pleasant for its patients, and for each of you there is a bond of friendship that is as lasting as time. I could praise your treatment for hours, and the half would not be told; but suffice it to say the Keeley Cure pulled me out of the deep, dark, musky, muddy, miasmic cess-pools of drunkenness, vice and crime, and now I have a hope to finally enter in at the Pearly Gate to that City whose builder and maker is God.
